

Battle at the Brickyard

WELCOME to the USAC MOPAR "Generation Next" Round 9 INDIANAPOLIS MOTOR SPEEDWAY

Good Morning and Welcome to the Brickyard! A very special THANKS to the IZOD INDYCar Series for their fantastic Bar-B-Que and the chance to meet up with Ed Carpenter, driver of the Sarah Fisher Racing, Dollar General #67 Car. It was really nice to see so many of the .25 Midget Families in attendance. Our .25 Midget Program continues with Round 9 here at the famous Indianapolis Motor Speedway. Drivers will be treated to a very special event here at the 'Brickyard'. Look around at the very cool MOPAR Display and be sure to get over to see them and sign up to Play the Mopar Trivia Challenge. Special thanks to them for coming and making our event great for our families. Everyone HAVE FUN!!!!!!

This photo was taken at the "Yard of Bricks" right on the front stretch of the Indianapolis Motor Speedway last night by Ron McQueeney. There are many Traditions here at the Speedway! The "Yard of Bricks" has a special purpose! Whenever a driver WINS here, the signature 'kissing of the bricks" takes place. Ed Carpenter stands in the middle of our USAC MOPAR drivers. Ed showed all the drivers where his family had laid ONE special brick this year, PURE GOLD right in the middle of the track. He said it has 'special' meaning for his family. Ed was a great person to have meet your children. He told them about his days racing Quarter Midgets. He even advised.. "stay in school". Ed is a graduate of Butler University. Stay tuned for more traditions this week!

Play the Mopar Trivia Challenge
